Moline Public Library (Gold, Silver & Bronze Rooms)
3210 41st Street, Moline, IL 61265

Young women come let your voices be heard!

We invite you to engage with other young women peers in a discussion about what deeply matters to you! You are important to us and we want to hear what's on your mind.

This is a friendly open community forum, which is being held with the following goals:

- To provide a safe space for young women to communicate freely and openly
- To enhance understanding of areas of need and concern among young women
- To provide ongoing support to young women and help empower them to overcome barriers
- To foster confidence and leadership capacity among young women

Young women may engage in the discussions they feel are most relevant to them. This is a friendly, supportive and pressure-free environment. We want everyone to relax and enjoy themselves.

We invite participation from teenagers through supportive older community-minded women. This is a FREE event and plenty of refreshments will be provided. Confirm your attendance by emailing admin@integrityaca.org. You may also call or text 309-721-6155.

Please RSVP by Tuesday, March 27th, if possible, as it is helpful for refreshment preparation. Young women who confirm attendance by Wednesday, March 21st and participate will receive a gift bag of great items! Please provide the number of attendees and include names and ages.
